NEW PROGRAM FROM CHURCH PUBLISHING

Pilgrim: A Course for the Christian Journey
WRITTEN BY STEPHEN COTTRELL, STEVEN CROFT, PAULA GOODER, ROBERT ATWELL, AND SHARON ELY PEARSON.
LEADER GUIDE FOREWORD BY MICHAEL B. CURRY, Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church.
Pilgrim is a teaching and discipleship resource for The Episcopal Church that helps inquirers and new Christians explore what it means to travel through life with Christ. Pilgrim offers an approach of participation, not persuasion. The courses follow the practice of the ancient disciplines of biblical reflection and prayer, with quotes from the Christian tradition throughout the ages.
Each course offers six or seven sessions that combine a simple prayer, reflection on a biblical selection using lectio divina, an article by a modern writer, and reflection questions.
Pilgrim is comprised of two stages of material. There are four Pilgrim books in the Follow stage which is designed for those who are inquirers and very new to the faith.
Later this year, another four books will be available in the Grow stage, designed for those who want to go deeper.

Look what church leaders are saying about Pilgrim:

The Pilgrim program is an exciting and highly accessible set of educational resources for Episcopalians and other Christians, wherever they are in their spiritual journey. Church leaders, take note, these helpful courses are well worth using in your congregations.

—The Rev. Canon C. K. Robertson, Ph.D.
Canon to the Presiding Bishop for Ministry Beyond The Episcopal Church

Pilgrim is a 21st century resource for those who are considering becoming Episcopalians or for Episcopalians deepening their commitment to God and to The Episcopal Church and is an exceptional comprehensive study. The Pilgrim series Leader’s Guide is clear in explaining the how-to’s as well as the nuances of leading a group. I highly recommend the Pilgrim Series for adult confirmation/journey classes, or for anyone seeking to better understand what we, as Episcopalians, believe.

—Deborah Bell Rodahaffer, Past President of FORMA, member of the Commission on Ministry in the Episcopal Diocese of Kentucky, and retired Director of Christian Formation, St. Matthew’s Episcopal Church, Louisville, KY.

With its comprehensive scope yet simple approach, Pilgrim is as good as its name, offering a course for the Christian journey especially geared to new believers. Each session uses the same thorough and easy-to-follow format, its pattern of prayer, conversation, scripture reflection, instruction, and discussion itself a model for Christian formation. Pilgrim is sound catechesis, offering a springboard for further inquiry and teaching.

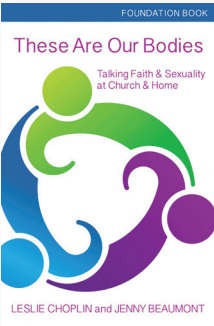

—The Rev. Canon Anne E. Kitch, Canon for Ministry Formation and Transitions, Diocese of Bethlehem

NEW EPISCOPAL SEXUALITY PROGRAM

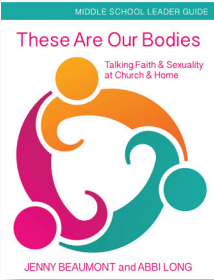

COMING THIS SUMMER:

An easily accessible, theologically progressive, mainline Christian Education resource on human sexuality, the Foundation Book (below) on why the church, in partnership with families, needs to work with children, youth, and adults on human sexuality.

These Are Our Bodies
Talking Faith & Sexuality at Church & Home
WRITTEN BY LESLIE CHOPLIN, JENNY BEAUMONT, AND ABBIE LONG

For Christians seeking to live a life worthy of our calling and desiring to pass along these values to our children and youth, These Are Our Bodies explores how we (as parents and adults) can explore issues of sexuality in the context of our faith. The Foundation Book aids the adult reader/teacher/parent in learning and using skills that enable them to embrace and affirm the wholeness of sexuality and to talk openly and honestly about the connection of sexuality and faith. The book focuses on foundational issues for addressing how (and why) we are called to have these conversations in a faithful community to support all church members.

The 10-session Middle School Leader Guide explores the life-giving and life-guiding power of knowing that we are God’s creation, complex, accepted, relational, responsible, knowledgeable, connected, empowered, and thoughtful. Creative activities and though-provoking discussions, all linked to additional resources found in the Participant Book keep the program scripturally centered, age-appropriate, and refreshingly honest and up-to-date. The Parent Book, keeps families in the loop throughout the program and offers tips for continuing the dialogue at home. More age levels to follow!

AVAILABLE SUMMER 2016:

Foundation Book	9781606743089   $24.00
Middle School Leader Guide	9781606743119   $21.95
Middle School Student Book	9781606743133   $6.95

We were looking for a church curriculum that followed the liturgical message of our weekly worship. LTGN is not only affordable but offers wonderful visual, music, and support resources. The lesson touches the children's hearts. We feel blessed to have found Living the Good News.

—Covenant Presbyterian Church,
Wichita, Kansas

Living the Good News provides something I cannot find anywhere else: an experiential approach to faith formation. Each week's Scripture lesson gives multiple learning methods, giving children an opportunity to identify their own sense of God and God's presence.

—Blessed Sacrament Parish,
Walpole, Massachusetts

I heartily recommend Living the Good News for church communities. The program is theologically sound, with good educational activities and a wide variety of resources, allowing me to individualize the curriculum based on who is attending any given Sunday.

—St. Luke's Episcopal Church,
Sequim, Washington

The value of using the lectionary for church school and connecting to worship is huge.

Our small parish had been in search of a curriculum for our Sunday School that would be both cost effective and also include teaching about our Episcopal Church. Weaving God's Promises was just that curriculum. It provided an excitement in instruction and activities for our children. The class leaders are delighted with its simplicity in use, and we have all seen a total difference in the excitement of everyone involved. Thank you for such a wonderful curriculum.

—Church of the Holy Nativity,
Weymouth, Massachusetts

Weaving God's Promises has truly made a difference in our church!

—St. Peter's Episcopal Church,
The Colony, Texas

The Weaving God's Promises program is a powerful resource. The program is easy to follow. The activities expand the lessons with a hands-on experience, reinforcing both audio and visual learning techniques.

The teachers and the children have grown with Weaving God's Promises. It has enriched our ministry. We are grateful for the program.

—St. Paul's Episcopal Church,
Modesto, California

We have been delighted with Weaving God's Promises and intend to continue using it in the years ahead.

Hazardous Saints
Christians Risking All, Changing Everything
C. K. ROBERTSON
Each of the persons examined—Barnabas, Francis of Assisi, Thomas Cranmer, Sojourner Truth, Dorothy Day, and Oscar Romero—were change agents in their time. This six-session study helps us to consider how we, too, can reflect the love of Christ in creative and intentional ways. Each session concludes with your choice of three endings: one for individuals using the resource on their own, one for small groups meeting together, and one for church leadership.

THE EMBRACING SERIES OF SMALL-GROUP STUDIES

The Embracing Series is a unique collection of adult studies on important topics of interest to today’s Christians, offering your small groups engaging and discussion-rich sessions. Each study is led by a popular teacher and deals with a thought-provoking subject.

Each study uses a $39.95 DVD featuring the host’s presentations and interactions with a recorded small group and a $12.95 Participant’s Workbook for class members’ notes and reflections. Your class members are able to respond to the on-screen leader’s presentation as well as to the interaction of the recorded small group.

Embracing Forgiveness
Barbara Cawthorne Crafton on What It Is and What It Isn’t
A 5-session Study
In five lively, engaging presentations, Episcopal priest, author, and spiritual director Barbara Cawthorne Crafton shares stories and insights on forgiveness, what it is (and isn’t!), its potential for healing and restoration, why it’s so badly needed (both personally and corporately), and how employing simple, concrete practices can more fully integrate forgiveness into our lives.

Session titles are 1: Seventy Times Seven: Really? 2: You Have Heard It Said, 3: Chipping Away, 4: How to Start, 5: Why Forgive?

Embracing Emergence Christianity
Phyllis Tickle on the Church’s Next Rummage Sale

A 6-session Study
Join Phyllis Tickle in this ground-breaking study as she examines the changing face of Christianity and culture. Phyllis surveys 2,000 years of history and identifies the great upheavals that occur in Western culture every 500 years—the most recent one is happening now. What are the implications of this “Great Emergence” that we’re experiencing, both culturally and spiritually, and where might we be headed next? What are the implications for your church and for you?
Session titles are 1: Emergence 101, 2: Where Now is the Authority? 3: The 20th Century and Emergence, 4: Gifts from Other Times, 5: How Then Shall We Live?, 6: Hallmarks of Emergence.

Building Faith Brick by Brick
An Imaginative Way to Explore the Bible with Children
EMILY SLICHTER GIVEN

Building Faith Brick by Brick offers a culturally relevant, hands-on way to explore faith stories with a broad range of ages. The author dug deep into the well of creativity and an enormous bin of little plastic building bricks to meld together a new way of teaching the stories of God to children. The book offers 30 Old Testament and 24 New Testament stories with lesson plans.

Introducing the Church’s Teachings for a Changing World Series

With this launch of the Church’s Teachings for a Changing World series, visionary Episcopal thinkers and church leaders team up to revitalize the currency, integrity, and scholarship of the original series with fresh new voices and style.

The Episcopal Way (Volume 1)
ERIC H. F. LAW AND STEPHANIE SPELLERS

In this foundational text for the series, Law and Spellers explore seismic shifts in American life and the opportunities and challenges each presents to the church today. With a winning combination of passion, creativity, and wisdom, the authors call for a return to Episcopal basics and insist that faithfully engaging a changing world might be the most truly Anglican practice of all.

The Episcopal Story (Volume 2)
THOMAS FERGUSON

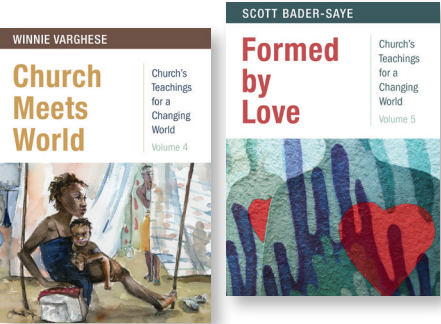

In this second volume, seminary dean and popular blogger Thomas Ferguson traces the history of Christianity, with a special focus on the rise of the Anglican Communion and the birth and continual rebirth of The Episcopal Church. It explores how we got here and where we might be going. The book includes interactive study questions and exercises and is accompanied by online materials.

A Faith for the Future (Volume 3)
JESSE A. ZINK

In this third volume, scholar and priest Jesse Zink unites tradition and contemporary thinking to introduce the essentials of Episcopal theology. What’s the story of God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, creation and humanity, baptism, church, Eucharist, mission, and the life after death? Find out how Episcopalians have explored those questions for centuries and discover answers—and new questions—of your own.

Coming June 2016:
Church Meets World (Volume 4)
WINNIE VARGHESE

A leading thinker and vibrant presence at the intersection of church and world, Winnie Varghese explores the “what,” “how,” and “why” of Episcopal engagement with contemporary social issues. Varghese leads readers to discover theological resources from generations past and how they help to guide our action around thorny issues like racial justice, gender and sexuality, economic disparity, definitions of “family,” the environment, and much more.

Also coming in 2016 (September):
Formed by Love (Volume 5)
SCOTT BADER-SAYE

The book examines the moral life through the lens of the Episcopal Church and its traditions. The author helps the reader move past the idea that we either accept cultural change as a whole or reject it whole, suggesting that we need to make discriminating judgments about where to affirm change and where to resist it.

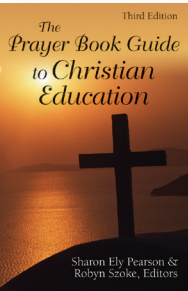

Part I looks at distinctive aspects of the Episcopal ethos. Part II looks at big moral questions: Who am I? Why am I here? What are good and evil? What are right and wrong? Part III examines how an Episcopal approach might shape a typical day.
