

GODLY PLAY DIGITAL BASICS

Welcome to Godly Play Digital!

For those of you familiar with the print version of Godly Play[®], as well as those of you discovering Godly Play for the first time in this, its digital version, this brief intro will help you understand the site and what you will find here.

In short, Godly Play Digital is a new way to deliver various components of The Complete Guide to Godly Play. All of these components are accessible through the main Godly Play Digital page, which you've already visited if you've found your way to this document.

If you're not familiar with Godly Play, you'll want to download and read the What is Godly Play? document, found on the Godly Play Digital page.

Each of the lessons for The Complete Guide to Godly Play (Volumes 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8) are found here for you to purchase individually. You then have permission to print or e-mail individual lessons to other Godly Play mentors/leaders in your congregation (only). There are also compilations of stories that are sold as a single unit, since they are to be presented together (over a series of weeks). These include:

- Advent (4 Core Presentations)
- The Faces of Easter (7 Core Presentations)

A number of Godly Play lessons (Volumes 2, 3, 4) have accompanying Godly Play Parent Pages, 2-page, full-color family papers to send home (or e-mail) to parents after presenting a given Godly Play lesson. There are three collections of these, one for each volume (2, 3, 4).

There is also additional Godly Play content in digital form: articles and booklets for purchase and download. Here is where you will find a variety of additional helps for your Godly Play[®] program, including articles offering advice from Godly Play trainers and booklets explaining the use of Godly Play in special settings and with targeted audiences.

One important note: Anything you purchase from Godly Play Digital is yours to keep, print, use, duplicate, and share as much as you like, but only within the purchasing congregation. Please honor the Godly Play[®] copyright. Thank you!
