

making all this? Think about how big God’s love must be! It’s enough to make you stop and pause.

READER 2:

What does “We believe” mean? Are we affirming that we have love of neighbor and self? Really? Are we unified in Christ? And to take it further, are “we” those who are already with Christ, those living now and those believers yet to come? Hopefully, we really are the Body of Christ; one big happy family, past, present and future.

NARRATOR:

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

READER 3:

It reminds me of that passage: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. He was in the beginning with God; all things were made through him, and without him not anything was made.... John 1:1-3 (abridged) from John 1:1-3.

Let’s face it; there’s been debate around the identity of Jesus since the beginning of the Church. I believe Jesus is the Son of God. Why can’t Jesus be human and divine? It’s a paradox and a mystery of faith. Why can’t Jesus be both?

If you think about it, it is hard to believe. But, if God created all that is, and God is God, why can’t God create someone both human and divine? And as human beings, baptized into the Body of Christ with God’s spirit dwelling within us, we can now believe we are truly sons and daughters of God. We somehow know we belong to God’s family.

Doesn’t this mean that God loves us a lot? God loved us enough to come face to face with us.
