The Way of Love

Living the Way of Love
A 40-Day Devotional

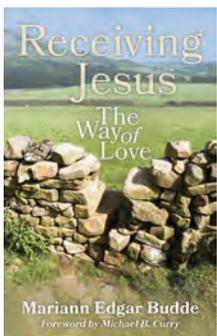

Mary Bea Sullivan
Foreword by Courtney V. Cowart & Stephanie Spellers

Mary Bea Sullivan tells stories from her own and others' experiences as a starting point for discussion about how to seek and find a deeper connection to God. Reflections follow the practices of the Way of Love—Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go, Rest—and end with questions designed to spur further discussion and assist readers in making the practices their own.

Perfect for Lent or anytime of the year as a resource for individuals and small groups, the book includes a guide for creating a personal rule of life, and a free downloadable Facilitator's Guide.

Receiving Jesus
The Way of Love

Mariann Edgar Budde
Foreword by Michael B. Curry

Mariann Edgar Budde shares her thoughts on how the reader can come to know—to receive—Jesus more deeply in practicing the Way of Love. Through the seven practices that have been put before us: to turn, to learn, to pray and to worship, to bless, to go, and to rest, she shares biblical stories, wisdom from the Christian tradition, and her own personal stories of spiritual growth.

Today Is a Baptism Day
Anna V. Ostenso Moore
 Illustrated by Peter Krueger

An ideal book to read with children to wonder and learn about baptism, with illustrations that reflect the diversity of God's people. Grounded in the Episcopal liturgical tradition, it is an accessible and inviting introduction to baptism for children and families of many Christian traditions.

A dedication page encourages personalization of the book, and a family section suggests ways to go deeper in conversation about baptism.

Water of Baptism, Water for Life
An Activity Book
Anne E. Kitch
 Illustrated by Shelley Dieterichs

An illustrated book for 8–11 year olds and families, with activities that offer a variety of ways for children to interact with this core value of our faith, making a direct connection for young people between their faith and daily life. It can be used in an educational or devotional setting at home, church, or school.

Taking the Plunge
Baptism and Parenting
Anne E. Kitch

You've chosen the godparents, dressed the baby in yards of white, and headed to church for the christening. Now what? What does the sacrament of baptism mean in your child's life—and yours? In Taking the Plunge, parents explore how the Baptismal Covenant helps to shape the experience of raising children. What are you promising when you baptize your child? Why are "please" and "thank you" theological words, not simply polite things to say? Anne Kitch writes with a light touch and includes plenty of real-life stories.

Human Sexuality Curriculum

These Are Our Bodies

Talking Faith & Sexuality at Church & Home

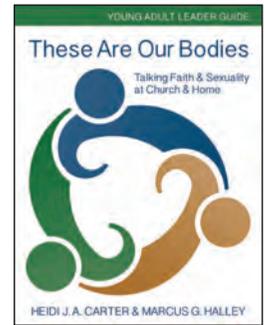

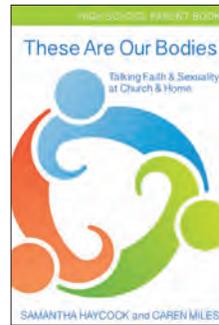

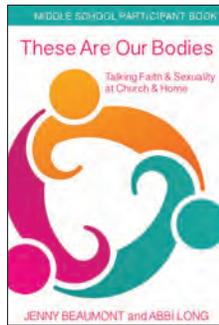

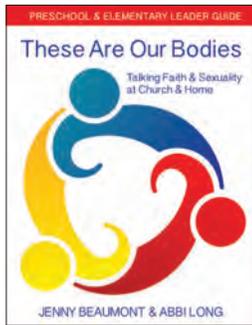

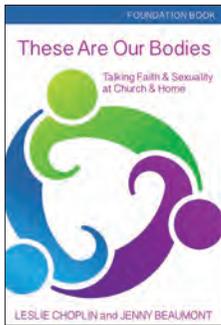

These Are Our Bodies addresses foundational issues for how we are called to have conversations about our sexuality within a faith community. Looking at sexuality through the lenses of growth and change, we can explore values and intentionality. Individuals and churches can use this technique to build upon this theological grounding.

“There is an urgent need across the Church for faithful, honest conversations with young people about sexuality. Finally, we have the sturdy resource we need to hold them. Honoring the inherent tension between the beauty and the complexity of the God-given gift of human sexuality, These Are Our Bodies is written for real people with real lives. It invites parents and church leaders into the serious, hopeful work of integrating body and soul.”

—Lisa Kimball, Ph.D., Associate Dean for Lifelong Learning, Virginia Theological Seminary

Grounded in the Episcopal tradition, the Foundation Book serves as a theological and practical guide for adults to have a conversation about the complexities of sexuality in today’s world that includes discussion questions for adult study. This book also serves as a resource for the These Are Our Bodies program modules, supplementing and supporting those educational materials.

The four age-level modules, encompassing ages 3–30, each include a Leader Guide, Parent Books (with the exception of the Young Adult module), and Participant Books, closely graded.

Pilgrim is a teaching and discipleship resource that helps inquirers and new Christians explore what it means to travel through life with Christ. Each course offers six sessions that combine a simple prayer, reflection on a biblical selection using lectio divina, an article by a modern writer, and reflection questions. There is also a leader guide for anyone who wishes to offer any portion of Pilgrim in a small group, whether in church, school, or home. www.pilgrimprogram.org

By Stephen Cottrell, Steven Croft, Paula Gooder, Robert Atwell, and Sharon Ely Pearson

Leader's Guide
Foreword by Michael B. Curry

A single overview of the program as well as a process of how to lead a group of youth or adults in discussing the material. This is an essential tool for anyone who wishes to offer any portion of Pilgrim in a small group, whether in church, school, or home.

Turning to Christ

Who was Jesus, why did people want to spend time with him so long ago, and why do we promise to turn to Christ and follow him today? Learn what Christians believe about God, Jesus Christ as the Son of God, the Holy Spirit, and the Baptismal Covenant.

9780898699388 | $9.95 | paper

The Eucharist

How do Christians know and worship God? The Eucharist is explored as a memorial of Christ's saving passion, and as a sign and foretaste of heaven that shapes our whole life and how the whole of life is sacramental.

Visionary Episcopal thinkers and leaders offer a new series about the Episcopal Church that are grounded and thoughtful enough for seminarians and leaders, concise and accessible enough for newcomers, and with a host of discussion resources that help readers to dig deep.

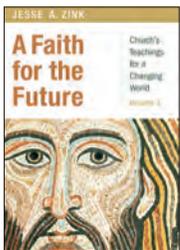

The Episcopal Way
Volume 1
Eric H. F. Law and Stephanie Spellers

Law and Spellers explore seismic shifts in American life and the opportunities and challenges each presents to the church today, calling for a return to Episcopal basics and insist that faithfully engaging a changing world might be the most truly Anglican practice of all.

Church Meets World
Volume 4
Winnie Varghese

Discover theological resources from generations past and how they help to guide our action around thorny issues like racial justice, gender and sexuality, economic disparity, definitions of “family,” the environment, and much more.
9780819232717 | $12.95 | paper

Formed by Love
Volume 5
Scott Bader-Saye

Examines the moral life through the lens of the Episcopal Church and its traditions. Christians need to make discriminating judgments about where to affirm change and where to resist it, including big ethical questions such as the relation of goodness and happiness, the place of rules and desires in the moral life, the significance of love and justice, and engagement with those who are different.

Gathered for God
Volume 8
Jeffrey Lee and Dent Davidson

More than a treatise on the Book of Common Prayer, Gathered for God opens fresh ways of seeing what the Prayer Book makes possible; the rituals that make faith real—gathering, bathing, welcoming, storytelling, feasting, and sending God’s people.
9780898690439 | $12.95 | paper

Companions on the Episcopal Way
Volume 9
Stephanie Spellers and Eric H. F. Law

A conclusion to the series about faith, dialogue, and the generous give-and-take that makes Episcopal life possible with summaries of each volume: history, theology, contemporary society, ethics, practice of ministry, Bible, and worship which invites readers to expand the faith conversation: with self, with neighbor, with the “enemy,” and ultimately with God.

Candle Walk
A Bedtime Prayer to God
Karin Holsinger Sherman

This beautifully illustrated picture book invites families to enter into a calm, contemplative nighttime quieting-down based on Compline, a centuries-old practice of evening prayer. Appropriate for toddlers and school children alike, Candle Walk is a wonderful way to prepare children for sleep, assured of the nearness of God.

Jesus
God Among Us
Roger Hutchison
Foreword by The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry

“Hutchison takes a moving piece of personal artwork and breaks it down into pieces to serve as the lenses through which to view various biblical stories of Jesus.”—from the Foreword by The Most Reverend Michael B. Curry, XXVII presiding bishop and primate of the Episcopal Church
