Books for Advent

What Are We Waiting For?

Re-Imagining Advent for Time to Come

William H. Petersen

Bill Petersen argues for a liturgical renewal in the life and mission of the Church by proposing an expanded, seven-week observance of Advent, taking its cue from the shape and substance of the Revised Common Lectionary, while noting (and critiquing) the Church's complicity in the "Christmas culture."

"Bill Petersen makes a compelling case for re-imagining Advent. Readers will benefit from his wisdom as a scholar and priest, and congregations will find ample resources for an Advent season that helps them anticipate the fullness of the reign of God."

—Ruth Meyers, Dean of Academic Affairs and Hodges-Haynes, Professor of Liturgics, Church Divinity School of the Pacific

TURN: Pause, listen, and choose to follow Jesus

LEARN: Reflect on scripture each day, especially on Jesus' life and teachings.

PRAY: Dwell intentionally with God each day

WORSHIP: Gather in community weekly to thank, praise, and dwell with God

BLESS: Share faith and unselfishly give and serve

GO: Cross boundaries, listen deeply, and live like Jesus

REST: Receive the gift of God's grace, peace, and restoration

This series of seven Little Books of Guidance are designed for you to discover how following certain practices can help you follow Jesus more fully in your daily life. You may already keep a spiritual discipline of praying at meals or before bed, regularly reading from the Bible, or engaging in acts of kindness toward others. Select one of the practices that interest you or that is especially important for you at this time. Watch for signs in your daily life pointing you toward a particular practice. Listen for a call from God telling you how to move closer. Anywhere is a good place to start. This is your invitation to commit to the practices of Turn – Learn – Pray – Worship – Bless – Go – Rest.
