

Church Publishing: 100 years of service providing resources that support you and your church as you carry out your ministry

Episcopal parishes, dioceses, and congregations of all sizes have turned to Church Publishing Incorporated (CPI) as a trusted source of authoritative and official worship resources for 100 years. Our books, church supplies, faith formation resources, and digital ministry resources engage, inspire, inform, and enrich the life and soul of the Episcopal Church. Our publishing program features titles on liturgy and music, spirituality, theology, environmental concerns and creation care, faith formation, LGBTQ issues, racial reconciliation, evangelism, and church leadership and administration.

As a publisher of official worship materials and resources for The Episcopal Church, CPI is your source for the most-trusted print and digital resources for churches, dioceses, schools, camps and conference centers, other Episcopal institutions. From The Book of Common Prayer, Enriching Our Worship, and The Rite Song to Lectionary Bulletin Inserts, The Hymnal 1982, and liturgical planning calendars, our comprehensive and diverse product line is designed with your needs in mind.

Our mission includes helping Episcopal clergy, educators, musicians, and others spread the gospel. We publish resources that support the life of the Church, including Baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation, and Marriage. We produce books and other resources for the seasons of the church year, including Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter. We publish resources for church professionals and leaders including rectors, vestry, administrators, treasurers, and wardens. And we have designed and produced programs for use in parish study and group settings.

Let us help you as you plan your worship, grow your ministry, infuse vitality into your congregations, and professionally manage your organization. Schedule a consultation with Bryan Williams, National Sales Manager for Church Publishing Incorporated. Bryan has worked with Episcopal and other faith based publishing organizations for over 30 years. His familiarity with the needs of Episcopal churches, schools, and other organizations combined with his knowledge of how CPI's resources support your faith communities, contribute to the personalized service you'll receive working with him.

To schedule a consultation with Bryan, please call him at 212-592-4230 or email him at bwilliams@cp.org. Be sure to discuss our generous bulk discount programs with Bryan.

With a religious publishing heritage dating back to 1918, Church Publishing Incorporated is an official publisher of worship materials and resources for The Episcopal Church, plus a multi-faceted publisher and supplier to the broader ecumenical market place.