

O Day of God set to the tune Llandaff

SM

Llandaff

Southern Harmony
harm. by Alastair Cassels-Brown, 1974

1. O Day of God, draw nigh
 2. Bring to our trou - bled minds,
 3. Bring jus - tice to our land,
 4. Bring to our world of strife
 5. O Day of God, draw nigh

In beau - ty and in power,
 Un - cer - tain and a - - fraid,
 That all may dwell se - -
 Thy sov' - reign word of tion's
 As at cre - - a - - tion's birth,

5

Come with thy time - less judg - ment
 The qui - et of a stead - fast
 And fine - ly build for days to
 That war may haunt the earth no
 Let there be light a - gain and now faith, come more set

 To match our pre - sent hour
 Calm of a call o - - beyed.
 Foun - da - tions that en - dure.
 And des - o - la - tion cease.
 Thy judg - ments in the earth.

As promised at the end of Chapter 1, this quintessential Advent hymn is here set to the tune Llandaff. The tune was composed by Edwin Moss (1838–1919) and is in the public domain.

The text of R.B.Y. Scott's poem is © Emmanuel College of Victoria University in the University of Toronto. Permission from Emmanuel College to use the poem here and at the end of Chapter 4 is gratefully acknowledged.